

Guthrie Memorial Library Board of Governors Meeting
May 12, 2022

Attendance:

Nat Fissel, Shanna Hollich, Eric Klansek, Chrissy Rosensteel, Steve Sherman, Bobbi Little, Kristina Rodgers, Chris Neri, Brett Hoffacker, Barb Eisenhart, Barb Carbaugh, Deb Little, Sue Frey, Bobbi Little, Abbey Lukiewski, Ryan Bankert, and Sharon Kebil-Whisler

The meeting was called to order at 12:16 PM by Chrissy Rosensteel

Library Consultants:

Presentation- Imaginative Trends in Libraries (Jim Keller, David Belanger)

- Welcoming All
  - Teen friendly, user friendly, caregiver friendly, adult friendly, senior friendly, business friendly, workforce friendly
- Customer Convenience
  - Movable collections, drive through, automated sorting, robotic book return
- People Centric
  - Intuitive, identifiable, visible, interactive, hygienic, community art
- Library as the Third Place
  - Individual, dry café, full café, reading/quiet, quiet, teen, spontaneous, programs
- Connecting to the Outdoors
  - Dance & play, experiential learning, places for building, places for relaxing, places for eating
- Spaces to Learn, Create, Share
  - Teen tech lab, building, creating, communal, conversation, mentoring and play, meetings, inspiring children, celebration
- Welcoming to All
  - Inviting, glowing, dynamic, accessible, intuitive, universal design

Introductions of board members

Comments: Had a café at one time. Now just have coffee. Sustainability of funds for new ideas?

Noticing of presentation that not many books were visible in pictures. Survey the community. Any future ideas, please share with Shanna

Approval of April 2022 Minutes: Approved with a motion by Nat Fissel, and a second by Brett Hoffacker.

Old Business: None

New Business: None

Meeting was adjourned at 1:25 PM

Next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, June 9, 2022, starting at 12:15 PM in the Bare Center.